Hello Denis Gromenko,

Congratulations on earning the Computer Science and Programming Badge for your efforts in the Creative, Serious and Playful Science of Android Apps course offered by the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign! Your earning of the Android Developer Badge and your score of 70% or higher on the activities within the Computer Science and Programming Track in this course qualified you for this badge. Thank you for your active participation in this course. I wish you the best!
